

Black Oak Stables, South Hamilton, Massachusetts

PRESENTS A CLINIC ON MAY 8TH 9 AM TO 4 PM

SCOTT LAFFEY To Benefit MSPCA – Nevins Farm

Scott Laffey began his riding career at age 4 on his pony, Beach Boy. He is the son of Olana and Scott Laffey, owners of Evenstride Farm in Byfield, Massachusetts. He was well-schooled in hunters and jumpers but found his niche in the discipline of western riding. In 1999, at age fourteen, he achieved two World Champions but for the last 9 years has focused his attention on Reining horses.

Scott is a graduate of Oklahoma State with a major in Agri-business. He is currently a pre-veterinary student in addition to several part-time ventures including assisting with the management of Evenstride Farm, teaching a number of weekly lessons, and training horses for reining, western pleasure and the hunters. In addition to the latter, Scott is a clinician and is working towards his judging card. Over the past few years he has conducted ten clinics in Oklahoma, Maine and Massachusetts.

Scott's achievements are impressive. Included among them are:

- 1998 – NEHC Stock Seat Medal Champion
- 1999 – Two- time World Champion Western Pleasure
- 2001 - Massachusetts Quarter Horse Reserve All Around
- 2002 – Second (Filly) In-Hand At Devon
- 2005 – Top Ten Quarter Horse Congress Freestyle Reining
- 2008 – Third Western Pleasure Futurity – POA – at the Tulsa State Fair

Clinic sessions will be between one and one-half hours depending on the number of riders in each session. After a lunch break, two or three additional sessions will be held. There will be a limit of 8 horses/riders in each session.

Sessions will include:

1. Ground work – in hand session;
2. Mounted focus on balanced riding;
3. Controlling the parts of the horse;
4. Flatwork & Collection for hunters;
5. Reining 101 – Introduction to Reining;
6. Jumping ABC's.

To register for the clinic, please contact Dr. Ruth Stelatella at trot.on@comcast.net or call Black Oak Stables at 978-468-4240. ALL fees for this clinic will benefit Nevins Farm. AUDITORS MAY ATTEND AT NO COST, BUT A DONATION TO NEVINS FARM WOULD BE APPRECIATED.
